Dedication of the Hebrew Temple. The event in this city yesterday was the dedication of the magnificent new Hebrew Temple, at the corner of Sixth and Broadway, and much of our space this morning is occupied with a report of the proceedings on the interesting occasion. The splendid building is a monument to the liberality of the Hebrews of this city, which does them is finite credit. of this city, which does them infinite credit. or this city, when does been infinite creat. One of the largest assemblies we have ever seen in Louisville was present, all of the dignataries of the city, and the principal representatives of the several professions being included. Altogether the dedication was a grand event and a spiendid success.

merchants, and dealers generally, may expect large crowds in the city during the State fair, which commences next Tuesday, and they will probably find it largely to their interest to use freely during that time the advertising columns of the Counter, which is daily read by four times as many people as any other paper in the State.

BOYD WINCHESTER,

New Version of Radical Peace. The tone of the Radical press on the subject of peace is highly significant. The Tribune, e-pecially, asks, "Which is the way to peace?" and answers its own question by asserting that, should General Grant be chosen President, "every one knows that the land will have rest for at least four years from the fourth

The Tribune's reply is very similar to that of the Mornmon Edder who was discussing his fifth with Archbishop Hughes: "You doubtless think," said the Elder, "that your relder, "is precisely the difference between us. You think you are right, and we know that our faith is the true one." And so it is with Mr. Greeley and the Radicals. Logic can have no place in shaping their councils. They are deaf to appeals made to their reason. Like the Mormon elder, they assume their position and "know" that it is correct. They can usesign no just reason for their faith, but they are not the less disposed to cudgel everybody e. They will argue, like the wolf with tion. They insist that there is rebellion and war in the land, and, when the charge is denied, they foam at the month with rage, and send their despots and their the land to prove the existence of war. In the next breath they will swear that everything is at peace; that Radicallsm means liberty; that it propogates brotherly love; that it would not arm a "sucking dove;" and then it points its ayonets at your breast, and consigns you, by virtue of military decrees, to its countless iles. If a protest is raised against its con duct as inconsistent with its professions, Radi-calism raises a new clamor, and vows that you are "disloyal and a traitor" for doubting its professions, and that you mean to get up a war, and that unless the Radicals are permitted to hold on to the reins of power there cerlatter form of the Radical th dical papers. It is the language of many their orators and leading men. It is heard daily from the stump. It is the language of the leader of the Grand Army of the Republic, who does not hesitate to aver that the Radicals mean, at all hazards, to hold on to the Goyernment. They are so bent upon war that their hearts overflow with military ardor, and they charge upon others what they design themselves. They know well that the Democratic party is the true party of peace. They concede as much when they acknowledge that if Gen. Grant is elected by a vote of the that if Gen. Grant is elected by a vote of the people, there will be no opposition to his inauguration by the Democratic party. The Tribune even says that it "knows" there will be peace in that event, which is equivalent to knowing that the Democratic party means to abide by the verdict of the people, as an-nonneed through a lengt election.

v" that it will be so, what does it and what do the Radicals mean by all their talk about war? If the Democrats do not propose to make war, and the Tribune "know" they o not intend war, who then proposes to dis-urb the peace except the Radicals themselves? when it denounces war in the event of Mr. Seymour's election, and its voice ac cords with that of the leaders of the whole Radical party. They thus virtually declare they will not submit to the verdict of the peo-ple if it should be pronounced against them, and that they mean to employ their old weapon, the hayonet, to coerce the majority into a sub-anisation to a Radical minority led by the trium-virate of Butler, Bingham and Sumner, with e Tribune as the expounder of their decrees. As we remarked, the Tribune is not alone thus defying the voice of the people. Gov. Morton, in his reception speech at Indianapo-lis, also plainly intimated, in the same manner the Tribune has done, the purpose of the Radicals to inaugurate war in the event of the election of Mr. Seymour. Their object is plain. They charge a hostile purpose upon others when they meditate it themselves; but their desire to remission to the contraction of the contraction their design to resist the will of the people is so plain that they acknowledge their own guilt in the very denunciations they make of the innocent. If Gen. Grant be elected the Tribune "knows there will be peace," because the Democracy will submit to the legitimately expressed will of the people. But if Mr. Seymour be elected the Tribune "knows" there will be war, because the Radicals will defy the will of the people, and assert their di-vine right to reign by the force of bayonets and

$\forall \text{Temporary} = \text{New boasted their 80,000 majority is Kentaky, agrees by ex-rebel solidiers, cowardly generalise, and to be either solidiers or guerrillas, but Vermout roles up a majority correspondingly as large, and every vote of that amjority works as by men who supported the government, either by muskets or their votes, while the Kentacky Democracy were attempting to strike Kentacky Democracy were attempting to strike and the supported the government.

The Journal.

the fact that the State which it endeavors thus to malign and misrepresent furnished over 75,000 soldiers to the Federal army at the time of the nation's sorest need.

The Journal claims or asserts that the unprecedented majority given Gov. Stevenson in the late election was given by "ex-rebel sol-diers, cowardly guerrillas, and rebels of the war period." Pray, what does it suppose has become of the survivors of the 75,000 Union volunteers? The total vote east being only 140,146, these Union veterans must necessa have cast a large proportion of it, and the Journal can hardly expect them to feel inex-pressibly grateful to the party that denounces them as "ex-rebels and guerrillas."

Can the Radical press on the other side of the river be reduced to such extremities to prop their falling fortunes as to resort to will-ful and deliberate misrepresentation of Ken-tucky's Union soldiers? The Journal knows as well as any one that Kentucky furnished three men to the Union armics for every one who joined the "Southern rebels."

At the close of the war the Southern people laid down their arms and sought to revenue their former relations with the United States Government. Through their State States Government. Through their State States Government. Through their States States Government. Through their States and annulled their ordinances of sectssion, and they returned to their peaceful pursuits under the Constitution of the United States, which they had sworm to support.

If it were not for the aid that Southern agriculture affords them, the people of the South would be destitute of means of subsistence, and become gaupers, dependent on public bounty. Self interest, even if there were no ligher motives, would therefore prompt the whites of the South to extend to the negroes of the New England Fair-Racing Yesterday. core and protection.

The important fact that two races are, under existing circumstances, necessary to each other, is gradually becoming apparent to both, and we believe that but for the influences excited to site up the passions of the negroes, is relations of the two races would soon addit themselves on a basis of mutual kindness of advantage.
